Missouri Quality Outcomes

A GUIDE FOR INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES

What are the Missouri Quality Outcomes?

The Missouri Quality Outcomes (MOQO) were developed in the 1990's, in an effort to emphasize quality of life for individuals receiving services and supports from the Missouri Division of Developmental Disabilities.

The Missouri Quality Outcomes are intended to be a guide to assist the user with facilitating discussion around key areas of importance to the individual and supporting their personal goals, dreams and other areas of interest to the individual that defines quality of life.

Talking Points:

For Families:

- What are the strengths you see in your family member?
- Do you have the information you need to promote self-determination for your family member?
- What are your family member's future goals?
- How do you promote independence in the life of your family member?
- Do you have a long-term plan in place if you are unable to provide care for your family member?

For Individual:

- Do you have the information you need to promote self-determination in a way that is meaningful to you?
- How does your family encourage you to find and keep friendships?
- How does your family encourage you to make your own life decisions?
- How does your family encourage you to set personal goals that are meaningful to you and follow through on them?
- Share at least one story of a time your family allowed you to take a risk or try something new without interfering?
- What chores do you have within your home? What other responsibilities do you have in your home?

Missouri Quality Outcome Supports to Families

Families are Provided with Knowledge that Empowers them to Facilitate Opportunities for the Individual's Self-Determination Throughout the Course of His or Her Life.

ABOUT THIS OUTCOME

This outcome focuses on information presented to family members to educate them in the process of self-determination. Families provide support and insight that will assist their family member in leading a self-determined life including making choices, setting goals, assuming responsibility, and driving how one's own life is lived. Families are integral in the development of a person's independent and interdependent capacities.

This Guide will help you understand the 7 areas of the Missouri Quality Outcomes

Why Change?

In 2015 the MOQO were changed because of request for:

- More modern and user friendly document and outcomes. Which can be used in conjunction with “Charting the Life Course” guide developed by UMKC Institute for Human Development;
- New Federal regulations around Self-Determination and Home and Community Based Services;
- The ability to measure quality through annual data collected by the Division of Developmental Disabilities.

Use this guide to:

- to facilitate discussion to support individuals personal goals, dreams and other areas of interest to the individual, that defines quality of life.
- promote continuous quality of life with supports and services provided.

Talking Points

These are to be utilized to encourage discussion.
